

CREEPING UP ON CHICAGO

New York Giants One Game
Nearer the Cubs

BY VICTORY OVER BOSTON

The Chicago White Sox Gained a Lap on Detroit by a Victory, Taken With Comparative Ease, by Score of 6 to 1.

New York, Oct. 6.—New York took the first game of the crucial series with Boston, 8 to 1, yesterday afternoon, and now needs but the two other games to tie with Chicago for the championship of the National League. There are but five points between the two teams. If New York loses one of the two remaining games, the pennant chances will go soaring.

Yesterday's game was almost like a give-away, Boston being out of the running because of inability to hit the ball, while the Giants bunched some good clouts off Tuckey, together with some skillful bunting. Ames pitched the first seven innings for the Giants and Boston got but a single hit and not a score. McInnis came in to pitch the remaining two innings, and the only rap off him was by Hannigan, substitute batter for Tuckey, who welched the ball for a fierce drive to deep left center, going away around for the only tally by his team. At other times Boston was helpless, no less than nine batters fanning before Ames' drop.

Tuckey went all right until the fourth when Bresnahan started with a single. Bridwell did the same and Ames sacrificed. Tenney rapped to first and Bresnahan beat the throw home. Herzog singled and Bridwell tackled. McCormick and Donlin fanned.

The seventh was Tuckey's last Waterloo, however. Five hits, a wild pitch and a pass constituted the ammunition which drove in six runs in this inning, and had the bean-eaters tied to the score. The Giants batted around and when it came Bresnahan's turn again, Needham was sent to the plate as a substitute.

CHANLER WITH- OUT ISSUES

Hard Road for Democrats in New York

THE BOSSES ARE AT ODDS

The Middle West Makes an Issue of Cannon—Congressman Longworth Says He Has Been Incorrectly Quoted.

New York, Oct. 6.—That the path of Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, the Democratic candidate for governor of New York, is a thorny one is made clear by an investigation of conditions; Mr. Chanler, being without well defined issues, talks of co-operation with the legislature which he asserts is more feasible under a Democratic administration than it would be if Governor Hughes be re-elected. Meanwhile both candidates are more or less at odds with the state bosses.

"Cannonism" clearly is an important issue in the middle West and many Republican nominees are being bound by promises not to support the speaker for re-election, and campaign managers in several states have declared that they do not want Mr. Cannon sent to their states as a spearhead.

Mr. Sherman in a recent speech referred to the ticket as "Little Willie," an attempt at humor which promptly was resented by the press and people in and around Chicago.

Congressman Longworth denounces as a campaign lie the report that he said that President Roosevelt would be a candidate again after two terms for Taft.

Candidate Bryan, still chuckling over his joke on Committee member Roosevelt of Omaha, starts out again for another week's campaigning in fine fettle.

He hears that Roosevelt will take the stump for Taft; but the White House says the president "has no present intention" of doing so.

Judge Taft in spite of failing voice, will continue the campaign to the end and will make his last speech of the campaign at Youngstown, O., on November 2. Yesterday he spoke in Kansas and at Leavenworth held a large audience in a cheering hall.

Governor Haskell, who threatened a sensation in the shape of another Roosevelt letter, has had his guns spiked by the publication by the president of the document itself, which proves to be entirely innocuous.

Ohio is in the midst of a very lively congressional campaign, and the indications are that the proportion of the delegation will be politically unchanged.

TAFT CROSSING INTO MISSOURI

Will End His Western Trip in Chicago
by Wednesday.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Just a parting word to Kansas, with meetings at Kansas City and at Leavenworth and Atchison, and William H. Taft will cross over into Missouri for two days of campaigning, and then to Chicago to end his western trip Wednesday. His day of rest in Kansas City, Mo., was decidedly more strenuous than was expected; nevertheless the candidate pronounced himself fit for the work in hand.

In Missouri Mr. Taft will speak in St. Joseph, Maryville, Gillette, and Brookfield, with a meeting last night at Macon. The first meeting, that at Kansas City, Kan., was addressed to the schedule Sunday at the earnest demand of the residents of that city. His speech was delivered from the steps of the public library, and despite the early hour the crowd was too large for the voice of the speaker to cover.

A CAMPAIGN LIE, SAYS LONGWORTH

Didn't Assert After Taft Served Two Terms Roosevelt Would Run.

Cincinnati, Oct. 6.—Representative Nicholas Longworth, who was in Cincinnati yesterday en route east, where he will continue his speaking tour, denounced as a campaign lie the widely printed story that in a speech at Rock Castle, Ill., he proposed that after Judge Taft had served two terms as president that President Roosevelt would again be a candidate for the presidency.

Mr. Longworth's statement follows: "At a meeting I was introduced by the chairman of the meeting as a son of Ohio, and since Ohio would not be determined to break the record as a mother of presidents, he said, in a peculiar vein, that I probably would be a candidate sometime myself."

"Replying in a similar vein, I said that I was not there as a candidate for any office. I was there to speak of the president, and to advocate the election of Judge Taft for president, not in the future, but now. I said that I believed confidently that Judge Taft would be elected president, and that his administration would be so wise and beneficial to the people that they would demand that he would serve them another term."

"After that," I said, "Ohio would not be so bold, and would yield to some other state—perhaps New York—to nominate the next president."

"I had no particular candidate in mind. New York coming first into my mind because of the presence of Mr. Sherman on the platform. At that point many people shouted 'Roosevelt!' and the audience cheered his name loudly."

PRESIDENT MUM.

Not Rebuking His Son-in-law for "After Taft" Speech.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Authoritative denial was made at the White House yesterday of the report that the president had rebuked his son-in-law, Representative Longworth, and asked him to give up speechmaking. Longworth, at Rock Island, Ill., on Friday, had said that Roosevelt would follow Taft in the White House.

The president's son-in-law was quoted in dispatches yesterday morning as saying he was in earnest. Whatever inspired him to the utterance, he is not to be disciplined by his father-in-law.

NEW WOMEN TRY TO REGISTER

Filed Out of Booth After The Law in Regard to Age Was Read.

New York, Oct. 6.—Fourteen members of the Woman's Suffrage league met in the room of the New Thought church yesterday and talked over plans for registering for election. Later they went out and made what is believed to be the first systematic attempt to register that ever has been made by women in this city.

Dr. Julia Sedon Sears, president of the New Thought church led the party to the nearest place of registration, 997 Sixth avenue.

When they arrived at the little barber shop in which the inspectors of registry sat, the place was full of men. After the men had filed out, the 14 women went forward four of their number.

Peter B. Finney, the chairman of the board of inspectors, was ready for them.

"What can I do for you, ladies?" he asked.

Dr. Sears answered: "We have come to register."

Mr. Finney didn't say anything, but just reached for his law book. Beginning with section 24, as to qualifications of voters, he read:

"A qualified elector is a citizen who is or will be on the day of election 21 years of age."

"I can't change the laws, ladies," he said.

"We are law-abiding citizens and will act quietly."

The party then set out for Eighth avenue to visit another registration booth.

PLANS BALLOON SAIL OVER OCEAN

Dr. Fielding Has Ordered Bag of 300,
000 Cubic Feet Capacity.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 6.—Dr. Frederick J. Fielding of San Antonio confirms the report that he will attempt a balloon voyage across the Atlantic. He has given orders for the construction of the balloon. The bag will be of 300,000 cubic feet gas capacity.

Dr. Fielding made his first balloon voyage last July, when he competed in the Chicago races travelled from Chicago races to Waterloo, Ont., a distance of 78 miles, in a little more than 23 hours. He says that with the larger balloon, now under construction in St. Louis under the direction of H. E. Honevell, his pilot, he will be able to cross the Atlantic from New York in less than four days.

He will carry a lifeboat and a wireless telegraph outfit and will start some time in April.

PUT SHERIFFS ON SALARIES

Recommends State Auditor
Horace F. Graham

IN HIS BIENNIAL REPORT

He Also Recommends That No State Money Be Paid Out Except Perhaps the State School and Highway Taxes.

The biennial report of State Auditor Horace F. Graham has the following preface:

I have put in force all the suggestions of the special commission on state audit, as far as existing legislation will permit and suggest that the legislation necessary to complete the work of the commission, be enacted.

This office has prepared and installed a uniform system of bookkeeping in all the state institutions. The manufacturing departments have been carefully examined and found to be properly and economically administered.

All these changes have been added to the expense of maintaining my department for the past two years, but I believe the money has been wisely expended.

The provisions of the law requiring a uniform system probate and county court forms and records, have been successfully worked out as far, perhaps, as is practical at present, and the result of these changes for record, audit and filing is a decided improvement.

The appointment of one printing commissioner has proved to be good legislation and the selection of a practical printer has improved the administration of this department and lessened the cost of its maintenance.

The judiciary act of 1906 has, to some extent, increased the cost of the administration of justice, but I believe it has, in the main, expedited legal procedure and given general satisfaction.

I have investigated the condition of William C. McGinnis and find that he is still suffering from the disability for which he was pensioned, by the act of 1906, and I would recommend that his pension be continued.

I have appended to this letter a table of the abbreviations used in the list of orders drawn. This is done at the suggestion of the commission on state audit and the further suggestion has been made that hereafter no abbreviations be used.

It has been the custom of the auditor of account to make such recommendations as his experience in the conduct of the office seemed to justify. I now submit the following recommendations:

I. No money other than perhaps state school and state highway taxes should be paid out except upon the order of the auditor of accounts.

II. There should be a full and careful reclassification of the salaries of all state and county officers, based upon the nature and extent of their duties and the fees they receive.

III. The matter of placing sheriffs upon salaries should be carefully considered by the general assembly.

IV. Some method of disposing of minor criminal matters and civil actions, involving small amounts, should be devised, in the nature of district courts, I believe the
